

Wild For Flowers

Congratulations!

Your wedding is going to be fabulous and your flowers need to be too. At Wild for Flowers this is what we do for you:

- Call us to arrange a wedding consultation, this sounds quite formal but allows us to put time aside to give you the attention that you deserve to discuss your wedding flowers.
- You may already have decided on exactly what you would like, alternatively you may prefer to be guided by your florist – either way is fine.
- Bring with you anything that you think may help- this could be images of flowers that you've seen in magazines, photos from friend's weddings, fabric swatches for colour matching. We have plenty of inspirational material too!
- During your consultation we will discuss your ideas for your flowers and provide you with advice and guidance should you need it. We have a huge amount of experience working with the local venues which is invaluable.
- After your consultation you will be sent a fully itemised quotation with minimum and maximum prices for all that you have requested. You can then amend your quotation, if necessary, to fit your needs (number of tables, guests, budget and so on).
- If you are happy with your quotation we require a small deposit to hold the date for you. The balance is payable 14 days before your wedding.
- When organising a wedding changes, such as guest numbers, can happen! We will do our very best to accommodate you with any changes that you would like to make to your flower order.
- 2-3 weeks before your wedding we will call you to confirm the details of your order, delivery times, delivery addresses and contact numbers.
- On the day of your wedding your flowers will be delivered to you.

Enjoy!
